The heart of a woman goes forth with the dawn
 As a lone bird, soft winging, so restlessly on
 A far o'er life's turrets and vales does it roam
 In the wake of those echoes the heart calls home.

The heart of a woman falls back with the night,
 And enters some alien cage in its plight,
 And tries to forget it has dreamed of the stars
 While it breaks, breaks, breaks on the sheltering bars.
